下午茶

LONG BAR

THE PULI
HOTEL AND SPA

THE STORY

A tea-related ritual, Afternoon Tea was firstly introduced in the mid-1800s by the Duchess of Bedford, who found a light meal of tea and cakes or sandwiches the perfect balance in the long afternoon. She started inviting friends over to enjoy a cup of tea, with a slice of bread and butter in between lunch and dinner. Thus, afternoon tea was created.

At The PuLi, afternoon tea is usually enjoyed as a joyful indulgence for different occasions, either in the tranquility of our lobby or at the Garden Terrace. With an incredible touch of French flair for a new twist on the classic afternoon tea, our afternoon tea comes in a dedicated fine trolley with an experience that delights and comforts every moment.

The drink dates to World War I, and an early form was created in 1915 at the New York Bar in Paris—later Harry's New York Bar—by barman Harry MacElhone. The combination was said to have such a kick that it felt like being shelled with the powerful French 75mm field gun.
